Apulian Red-Figure Skyphos

An ancient Apulian Greek red-figure skyphos with meander pattern around the lip and panels with diamonds below.

Apulia, Magna Graecia.
Ca. 350 - 300 BC.
Height: 4 1/4 in. (10.9 cm).

The output and quality of the Greek colonial potters working in Southern Italy increased greatly following the Peloponnesian War when Attic exports fell off sharply. South Italian Colonial Greek craftsmanship of the 4th century BC was an amalgamation of the Ionian (Athenian, Attic) conventions, and Doric (western colonial Greek) styles, with a noticeable native Italian aesthetic. The five predominant regional schools of South Italian pottery were: Apulian, Sicilian, Lucanian, Paestan, and Campanian.

Formerly in the collection of Jerome Eisenberg, New York.

inventory number: 8966
